

2017 ANNAPOLIS SALTY DAWG SEMINAR - Essentials of Blue Water Cruising

On Wednesday, October 4, 2017, the Salty Dawg Sailing Association is hosting a day-long passage-making seminar for all sailors interested in learning more about blue water sailing, offshore cruising and Association rallies, rendezvous, seminars and other activities.

Salty Dawg passage-making seminars stress safety and seamanship, and are taught by noted experts and veteran blue water sailors. The Annapolis Seminar will be held at the Mears Pavilion, Annapolis, MD. The pavilion is located at Mears Marina, 519 Chester Avenue, in the Eastport neighborhood of Annapolis. Registration opens at 7:30 AM. Because of the breadth and wealth of information provided, the seminar starts promptly at 8:00 AM.

The lineup this year is spectacular—meet Chris Parker in person, Jeff Thomassen of OCENS, Dr. Howard Champion, Steve Madden of M Yacht, publisher and circumnavigator George Day, Dave Flynn of Quantum Sails, and circumnavigator Rick Palm—priceless!
